Tourism and Travel Management

Towards a new career conceptualization and opening a vast matrix of social, cultural and global interaction and communication, the college introduced three years' degree course of Tourism and Travel Management(Major) affiliated to University of Calcutta in the session 1999-2000.

The course overall is vast, vocationally oriented and provide good training for those interested in Tourism Industry. Coverage includes both theoretical and practical elements. Students would have exposure to Information Technology in TTM. In course pattern, proposed by UGC, there is scope for field trips to important tourist destination and outside West Bengal.

The course has the following aims:

1. To make students capable of self- employment.
2. To provide Various Govt. and Non-Govt. Tourist Organizations, experts in Tourism and Travel Management.
